

Drawing Your Home:
What were the structures and functions within colonial families?
Teaching With Documents
by Peter Pappas     www.peterpappas.com

Directions: Assume that you are a teenager who has living in New England in the 1600's. Use the drawing below to create diagram of the people and objects in your household. Use the evidence from the documents to gather information. You can sketch the people in your family and the things you own. Use labels. Be sure to include

- Your family members
- The things you own
- Where your daily activities take place.

